She Misses Brantley County

Dear Editor:

2016 and had planned to thank you but was ple of Brantley County each and every one. 1993, I was in Cochran ter Matt Lu Godfrey was in Atlanta at a hospital with her husband, Fernand Godfrey, they had a fishing camp on the Satilla and we started coming to the Camp and to see it and loved it so much when my husband came disabled we came to live there. When word got out about us going down to bring out two of my grandchildren, people came to help us any way they could. Mr. Turner volunteered his van and himself to take me down there. Nancy Rentz went with us, as we didn't know if we might have other children coming back with us. None did, but later said they should have, as matters got worse. Mold, mildew, more rain, it was horrible. We left as soon as we could. Some one told me that my long front porch was full of food, and all kinds of things needed down there. We had left alit all to Nahunta where a truck was headed down to Homestead and Florida City, Florida. My sons both owned roofing the top story off the to companies but before the storm, were almost finally get a phone bankrupt, and I had been Continued On Page 13

Dear Editor: praying hard about it I had lived in Brant- but they stayed busy for ley County from March a very long time after of 1982 until October of Andrew. I told the Lord be there for the rest of sorry that it took a hurmy life, I loved the peo- ricane to accomplish it. When we got as far south as South Miami trashed South Florida, in Homestead and Florida City. I grew up down checking on my Aunt there and it was heart-lma Lee Phillips who breaking. As we got off was in her 90's, her sisthe left and saw a huge sign on top of a house That was someone telling my son Reggie Wilson. Reggie had looked around when he was able to get out. He stripped what was left of Frank L. Wilson Jr. be- the roofing and dried it next. People were waiting in line every day. wanting him to put their names on his list to do what they needed. The biggest problem was so very many didn't have a left at all.

have always prayed for my children, their families and other parts of my family and especially when there is a hurricane out, pray harder. Both of my sons owned roofing companies and were having a rough time financially but Hurricane Andrew cam along and they stayed busy, busy, busy after that. My sister's house was an old one ready, but someone took that might have survived (Dade County Pine) but the two story house across the street must have had a tornado rip of their house. When I
